The Unmissable Magic of Bridport Folk Festival

While Bridport is no stranger to great folk musicians and singers, the town comes alive at the end of July to celebrate the genre in style. With venues such as the Millennium Green Marquee, The Dagger Stage at Bucky Doo Square, Colmers Stage at Burrough Gardens, The Ropemakers and the Town Hall, there is much for folk fans to enjoy this year.

Dubbed the 'Friendliest Festival', Bridport shows off its best with over 40 music acts and 16 Dance sides. Headliners include True Foxes at Millenium Green on Friday 24th and the Sam Kelly Trio at the same venue on Saturday 25th. For the full lineup which inlcudes Clementine Lovell, Wickenwood, Quinns Quinney Skiffle and many others visit: www.bridportfolkfestival.com.
